About Love146

The Love146 vision is the abolition of child trafficking and exploitation—nothing less. Love146 is an international human rights organization working to end child trafficking and exploitation through survivor care, prevention education, professional training and empowering movement. The trafficking and exploitation of children is one of the darkest stories on our planet, but for Love146 the hope of abolition is a reality. Love146 believes in helping grow the movement of abolition while providing effective, thoughtful solutions. Love146 believes in the power of Love and its ability to affect sustainable change. Love is the foundation of its motivation.

About the Role

In this newly-created position, the U.S. Executive Director is the leader of the organization's U.S. based operations, located in Connecticut, North Carolina, and Texas.
