

Executive Director

Description

Forus is seeking a dynamic, motivated and creative leader to take up the role of Executive Director and guide the work of the network. The ED will work closely with the staff, members and governance bodies of Forus, to strengthen the voice and capacity of national NGO platforms and regional coalitions. This is a unique opportunity to lead a global platform working on core challenges facing NGOs today to address power imbalance to eradicate poverty, reduce inequalities and achieving social justice, peace and democracy throughout the world.

About Forus

Forus represents more than 22 000 organisations and brings together 69 national development NGO platforms and seven regional coalitions in Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe and the Pacific. Founded in 2008, it was formerly known as the International Forum of National NGO Platforms.

Its mission is threefold:

1. Connect NGO platforms and regional coalitions to build joint actions, learn from one another, and fight for an enabling environment for civil society organisations.
2. Support and develop the capacities of members for more effective participation in decision-making processes, using the network's collective intelligence and innovative approaches.
3. Influence public policies together with our members, by engaging in official negotiations, deliberations and public mobilisations at national, regional and international levels.

About the Role

The Executive Director will work with diverse stakeholders to strengthen our network through cooperation, networking, partnerships and alliances at a global level. The ED will lead and manage a multicultural team remotely while managing and supervising the administrative and financial matters of the organisation.

Purpose of the Role

- Facilitate the participation and leadership of the member organisations in the Forus network and defend the interests of NGOs, based on the advisory of the Forus' Council and General Assembly.
- Oversee the overall management, develop and implement the strategy of Forus, based on the outcomes and advice of the Forus Council and General Assembly.
- Ensure organisational sustainability by providing leadership, strategic direction and support in the programme implementation, in collaboration with the Executive Committee (ExCom).
- Report to the Executive Committee and consult regularly with the Chair on important developments and major management decisions.
- Support the effective functioning of governance structures, ensuring that the governing bodies and the Executive team work well together.
- Lead and support the staff remotely implementing Forus strategies internally. Responsible for delivering results in line with the mission and vision of Forus in an effective and efficient manner.
- Oversee and steer the fundraising activities of Forus.
- Represent Forus towards partners, stakeholders, public institutions and funders.

Duties and Responsibilities
